FOREWORD

MEMORIES—of friends and teachers, of work and play, of life and laughter—all these we have strived to recapture in the pages of this, THE 1947 LATIPAC.

As the years of our high school life roll by, the realization of how precious each moment truly is grows deeper and acquires a fuller meaning. Knowing that some day we shall no longer be able to live within the beloved walls of our Alma Mater, we have tried to include everything here that means Broughton to us.

We have struggled to preserve in this book a cross section of this year at Broughton. We have attempted to present to you, the student body, a LATIPAC that in the future you may pick up and say, "This was Broughton as I knew it in 1947."

DEDICATED to

MISS CELESTE LANE PENNY

WE, the senior class, as an expression of our loving devotion and deep-rooted appreciation, dedicate this, THE 1947 LATIPAC, to Miss Celeste Lane Penny:

An inspiring example of a teacher who was more than a teacher, and a friend who was more than a friend;

In whose heart we always found understanding, sympathy, and kindly wisdom;

From whose sincere Christian character we constantly gained inspiration, comfort, and guidance;

From whose friendship our lives have been enriched immeasurably;

By whose patient persistence we have developed to a higher degree the best that is within us, and by whom the good in the worst of us has been brought to light;

From contact with whom we have become infused with the desire to do bigger and better things for our school, our nation, our world, and, above all for the kingdom of God.

"Thus to relieve the wretched was her pride,
And e'en her failings leaned to virtue's side;
But in her duty prompt at every call,
She watched and wept, she prayed and felt for all.
And as a bird each fond endearment tries
To tempt its new-fledged offspring to the skies,
She tried each art, reproved each dull delay,
Allured to brighter worlds, and led the way."

SENIOR CLASS

AS SENIORS we have reached a moment not often captured in a lifetime; we stand between the old and the new. Now, just before our graduation, we look back over our high school days and from our vantage point take a glimpse into the future before we step over the threshold forever.

We must say goodbye to our school, to our teachers, and to our friends. You have meant more to us than we can realize now. Our days of work and play here will always hold a special place in our memories.

Next year many of us will be going to college; others will find jobs or enter the service; some will marry and start homes. Deep within our hearts, however, there is a common wish to live in such a way that Broughton will always be proud of us.

And now we bid our school a last farewell.

JUNIOR CLASS

JOHN NICHOLSON was elected president of the Junior Class for the year 1946-47. Other officers elected were Robin Scroggs, vice president; Betty Shields, secretary; Barbara Daniel, treasurer; and Bruce Olive, sergeant-at-arms. The class also had an executive committee composed of the class officers and the presidents of the junior home rooms.

Several members of the class have participated in the field of sports. John Nicholson, Billy Crocker, Bruce Olive, John Pierce, and Tommy Taylor were active members of the football team. Charles Barham, J. W. Boles, Bobby Yancey, and Bobby Wiggins were the outstanding junior members of the varsity basketball team.

The Junior Class was proud of its members who were elected to the National Honor Society. They were Nell Simms, Barbara Daniel, Gordon Middleton, Charles Barham, Nancy Fairley, Robin Scroggs, Sue Coltrane, and Barbara Jobe.

When the dramatics department produced "The Arrival of Kitty," Polly Hendrix and Warren Brannon were members of the cast from the Junior Class. G. L. Smith was the only junior who achieved membership in the Golden Masquers, an honorary dramatic society.

The junior marshals this year were Dorothy Johnson, John Nicholson, Betty Shields, and Gordon Middleton.

The big event of the year was the annual Junior-Senior formal dance. A Pan-American theme was used in decorations, programs, and refreshments. Music was furnished by Herbert Gupton's orchestra. There was also a floor show given by a group of students.

For the Junior Class, 1946-47 has been a year of outstanding achievements in which we are proud to have contributed so great a number of leaders and honor students to the school. We are grateful to Miss Lessie Cogdell, class adviser, for her interest and help, for we feel that we are indebted to her for much of our success.

COMMITTEES

Social: Bobbie Lee Rogers, Chairman.

This year, as before, it was the responsibility of the social committee to lay plans for all social events centered about the council. A dance after the Rocky Mount football game served as a home-coming affair, and another dance on February 28 was sponsored by the council. A tea for the new students on September 30 and a Student Leaders' Banquet on December 12 rounded out this committee's work.

Sports: Co-Chairmen, John Senter and Dot Bray.

A strenuous program of intramural sports between home rooms was supervised by the members of this committee. Also during football season the goalposts were decorated with crepe paper.

COMMITTEES

School Store

Elections

Sports

Lost and Found: Chairman, Kenneth Winston.
Many a lost article was acquired by inquiring at the lost and found office, which was open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings.

Audio-Visual: Chairman, Billy Stone.
Though there were very few pay movies held for the enjoyment of the whole student body, the task of showing pictures for individual classes was quite a large one.

Calendar: Chairman, Bobby Walker.
This committee planned dates for all school activities and saw that there was no intermingling of the dates for these events.

Points: Co-Chairmen, Betty Ann Yowell, Jimmy Nicholson
The drawing up of a whole new points system was the largest task of the points committee. The total number of points that each member of the student body had acquired during his high school career was tallied at the beginning of the second semester.

House: Committee, Sabra Ives.
The members of this committee cleaned the trophy case regularly, and took charge of having pennants made for football and basketball games.

Assembly: Chairman, Jimmy Briggs.
This committee planned some very interesting and inspirational chapel programs. Probably the highlights were a musical program given by the Blind School, Shaw University Glee Club, Professor Quiz, and Mac Campbell s Band.

Stage: Chairman, Billy Galt.
It is the responsibility of the stage crew to make certain that the stage is kept clean, that curtains and lights are kept in order, and that the curtains and lights are operated during chapel programs and other functions taking place in the school auditorium.

Publicity: Chairman, Annie Taylor.
The greatest job resting upon the publicity committee, and largely upon its chairman, is that of writing the school news in the form of a column appearing in each of the local newspapers weekly. This committee also publicizes all the various games, dances, plays, and other functions taking place within and about the school.

Standards: Chairman, Charles Barham.
This committee and its members endeavored to replace the worn flag which appeared in front of the school by acquiring a new American Standard from the American Legion. Near the close of school the service flag of former Broughton students was taken down and cleaned.

Grounds: Chairman, Robert Ammons.
Plans for a showcase in memory of boys who died in World War II were completed, and a great deal of money was raised for that purpose.

Citizenship: Chiarman, Doris Ashby.
Clean-up and "Get Acquainted Week" campaigns were the highlights in the work of the Citizenship Committee.

Cafeteria: Chairman, Calvin Koonce.
Cleanliness and order in the cafeteria were maintained by the members of this committee. The breaking of the line at lunch period was decreased tremendously due to leadership of the members.

Poster: Chairman, Emilia Kutschinski.
Many attractive and original posters for advertising school events were the work of the members of this committee. Not only the poster committee, but all the other committees of the student council were represented by these posters.

Constitution: Chairman, Virginia Waldrop.
The altering and combining of various student council committees, and the changes in our student council constitution were the largest jobs of the Constitution Committee.

Elections: Chairman, Jimmy Lesane.
With its chairman, the school sergeant-at-arms, this committee and its various members directed the elections of class officers and any necessary elections in the Council.

Top to bottom: Publicity, stage, and poster; audio-visual; house and grounds.

The National Honor Society

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY is composed of juniors and seniors who have excelled in the four standards of character, leadership, service, and scholarship. They are selected by the votes of both the students and the faculty members.

During the fall the members assisted in office work and conducted a study hall before school. Giving recognition to the two ninth and tenth grade home rooms having the highest scholastic records for the first six weeks' period was the spring project of the Society.

At the fall tapping ceremony five juniors and four seniors were taken into the society. At the spring ceremony three juniors and four seniors were tapped.

The officers for the first term were Jimmy Briggs, president; Jimmy Nicholson, vice president; Barbara Daniel, secretary; and Alvin Jenkins, treasurer.

The members of the society are as follows: Helen Joyce Bell, Jimmy Briggs, Clay Crisp, Eunice Floyd, Alvin Jenkins, Dick Jenrette, Calvin Koonce, Charles McDonald, Jimmy Nicholson, Barbara Schreffler, Tom Smiley, Margaret Story, Martha Strough, Bobby Walker, and Dot Woodward, seniors; Charles Barham, Sue Coltrane, Barbara Daniel, Nancy Fairley, Barbara Jobe, Gordon Middleton, Robin Scroggs, and Nell Sims, juniors.

Mrs. W. J. Hosley is the adviser of the chapter.

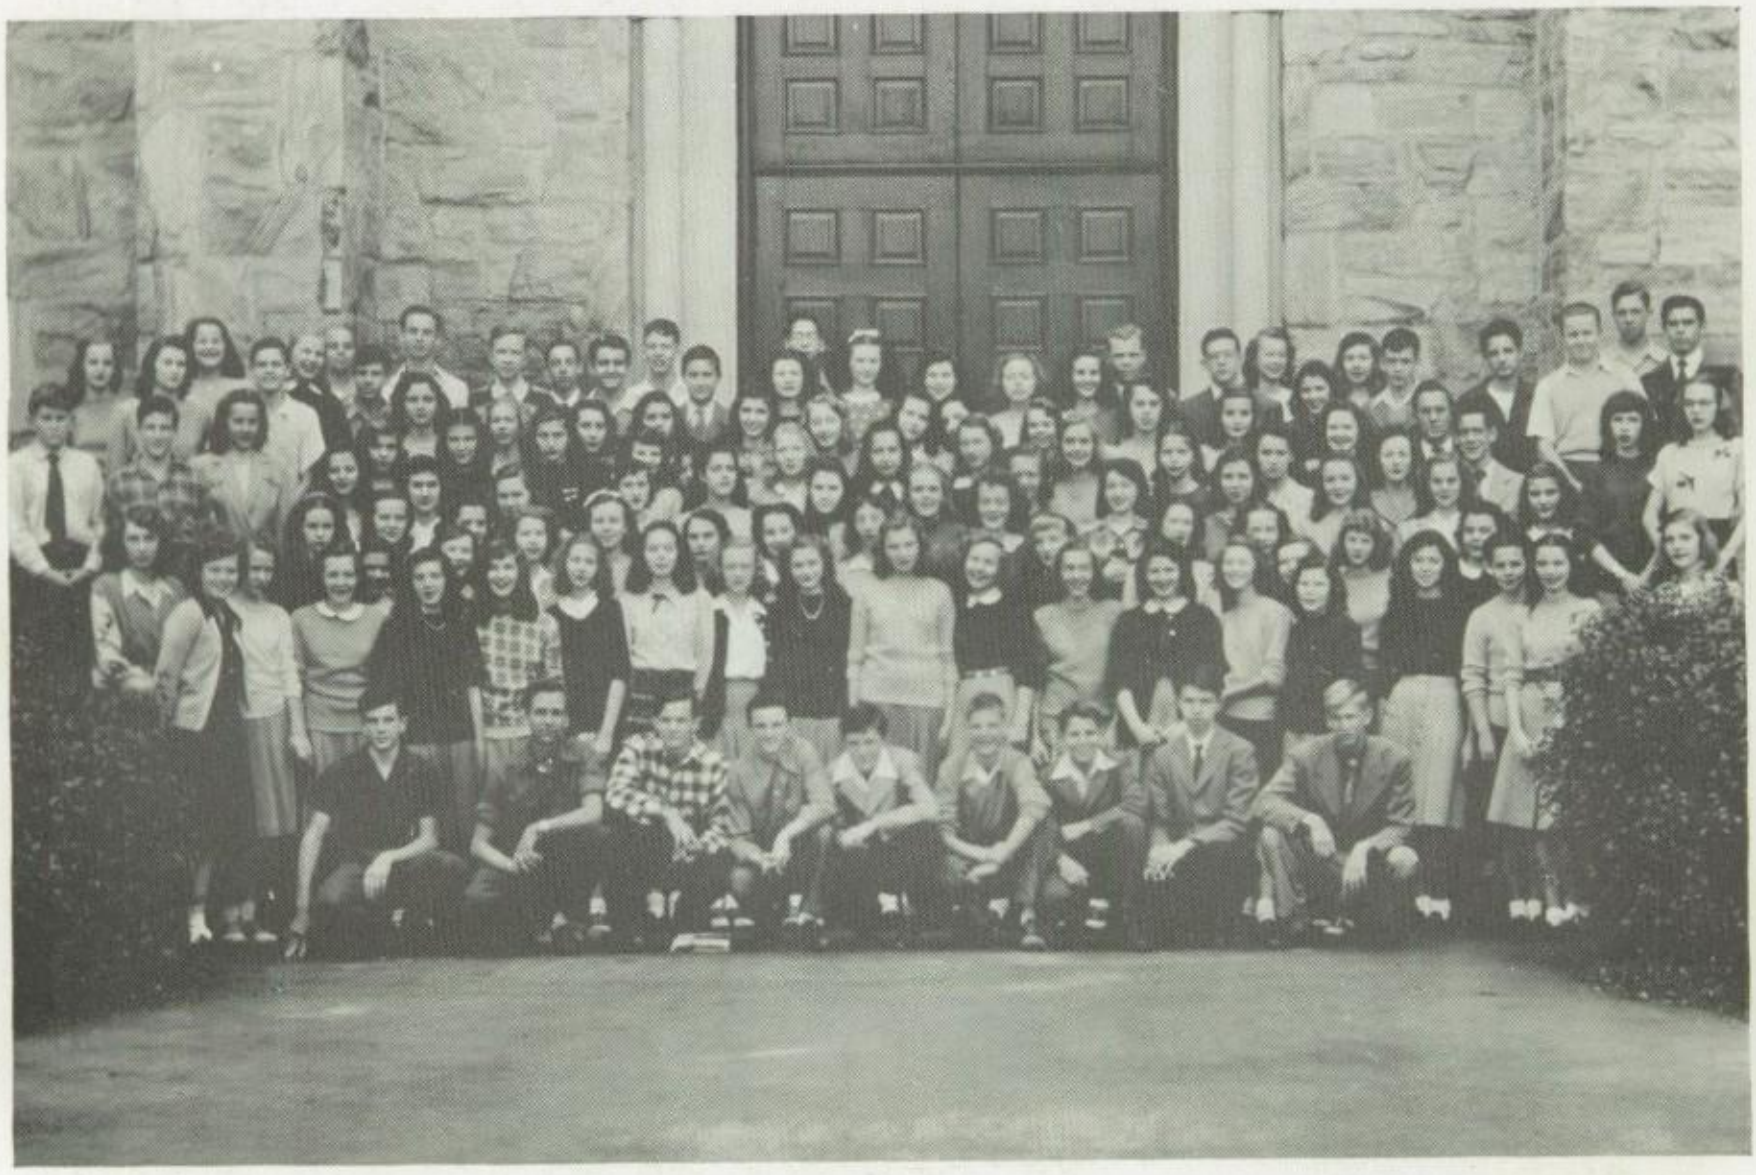
Glee Club

THE NEEDHAM BROUGHTON High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Camille Jernigan, was composed of one hundred and thirty members. Participation in several of the assembly programs was one of the main contributions of the Glee Club to school life. A Thanksgiving musical program was presented in chapel. An inspirational presentation of the "Story of the Birth of Christ" was given at Christmas, with Eugene Pickett as narrator.



In March the mixed chorus entered the district music contest at Meredith College.

The high-light of the spring was in the form of a spring concert by the Glee Club and the Band. Featured soloist in the spring concert was Robert Walker.

Some members of the Broughton Glee Club sang in the Raleigh High Schools Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Frederick Stanley Smith. This group sang for the Legislature, for many local civic clubs, and for several radio broadcasts.

Officers of the Broughton High School Glee Club were: Jo Brooks, president; Mary Louise Hines, vice president; Pat Lawrence, secretary; La Mont Fitzgerald, treasurer; Ryan Bashford, sergeant-at-arms; Vernon Thompson, reporter; Helen Joyce Bell and Phyllis Kelly, accompanists.

The Hi-Times, Needham Broughton's newspaper, had a successful year during 1946-47. Under the editorship of Betty Anne Yowell, eight issues were printed during the year. The Hi-Times again appeared in its pre-war size with six or more pages in almost every edition.

Every member of the staff has done his share to make the quality of The Hi-Times good enough to receive one of the top Columbia Scholastic Press Association awards. The typists, reporters, copy readers, advertising agents, departmental editors, and headline writers all voluntarily contributed much of their free time to the newspaper work. Mr. Thomas High rendered invaluable aid as faculty adviser.

The Hi-Times is affiliated with the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the National Scholastic Press Association, and the Quill and Scroll.

The Hi-Times was represented in the C.S.P.A. Convention at Columbia University in New York by twenty staff members.

Third and fourth rows: Billy Caviness, Eugene Ferrell, George Paulson, Charles Gaddy, Hubert Rhodes, Jesse Black, Bill Watkins, Horace Lindsey, Vernon Thompson, Leon Jordan, Barbara Daniel, Jackie Jernigan, Nancy Fairley, Patricia Whitford, Joyce Sapp, Rhea Stevick.

THE SPANISH CLUB, "Los Amigos," supplements the regular class work in giving the students more opportunity to speak and understand Spanish as an every-day language. By becoming better acquainted with the traditions, customs, and life of the people in Spanish-speaking countries, and by recognizing the heritage from Spain in our own cultural and material development, the Spanish Club seeks to promote international understanding and good will.

During the year, members of the club have corresponded with students in many Spanish-speaking nations. Programs have included short plays in Spanish, a number of educational films depicting Latin American countries, guest speakers who have traveled or lived in Latin America, and games, contests, and puzzles to afford practice in using Spanish.

The highlight of the year was the club's presentation of its annual Pan-American Day program in chapel. The program, "Mexican Fiesta," consisted of typical songs, dances, and costumes of Mexico.

The successful year came to a close with a banquet at the S&W in May.

Latin Club

MOTTO: Possunt quia posse videntur

THE LATIN CLUB was composed of four first-year sections and four second-year sections which met twice monthly during the class period.

The purpose of the club was to acquaint the student with Roman legends, gods and goddesses, and various phases of Roman life.

Aside from the usual songs and Latin stories, this year the club played bingo, had spelling matches, held quiz programs, and invited outside speakers.

As an incentive to better work those students who had an average of 80 or above, were permitted to order a Latin Club Pin.

Each year the members adopt some worthy project. They have helped with the purchasing of a filing cabinet for club materials, with the framing of pictures suitable for the Latin rooms, and they have bought small government bonds and two unabridged dictionaries. A satisfactory beginning toward a club library has been made.

Third: Dot Johnson, Jimmy Eubanks, Jack Thomas, Jimmy Lesane.

Fourth: Doris Ashby, Billy Galt, Sally Bizzell, Miss Burge, Bill Pleasants.

The Library Club, whose membership includes all the student assistants, meets each Tuesday with the librarian to study library practices and discuss routine problems. Officers of the club are as follows: Bill Galt, president; Gwen McGhee, vice president; Edna Earle Williams, secretary-treasurer; Jack Thomas, sergeant-at-arms. Other members of the library staff include Doris Ashby, Sally Bizzell, Floyd Collins, Cecelia Cone, Jimmy Eubanks, Colleen House, Dot Johnson, Jean Kistler, Jimmy Lesane, Bill Pleasants, Barbara Schmidt, Bill Stevenson, Dot Woodward, Mary Ruth Yow, and Miss Nancy Burge, librarian.

Each student assistant has a regular schedule for work in the library. This includes checking books in and out, making bulletin board displays, keeping the magazine room in order, supervising the reserve collection, shelving books, making and delivering notices.

In the fall, the staff entertained the faculty, the parents of the members of the Library Club, and the officers of the P.-T.A. at a Book Week tea at which time 400 new books were displayed. In the spring, two visitors to the club were of special interest. Mr. Richard Gaither Walser spoke on "North Carolina Poetry," and Mrs. Mary Peacock Douglas talked about "Opportunities for Librarianship."

Little Theatre

Realizing that the school and stage are today very strongly influencing each other, Broughton Little Theatre this year has sought as its members students who have shown a desire to enter wholeheartedly into all its constructive activities. The organization has appealed to its members through special programs on pantomime, voice and diction, student directed plays, and public performances to produce a membership with quickened imaginations, better developed bodies and voices and a keener appreciation of art and humanity.

With this purpose in mind the Little Theatre has presented a variety of plays for its meetings, the student body as a whole, the P.-T.A., and the State Drama Festival. For its major fall production at three-act farce, "The Arrival of Kitty"; for other programs during the year, the one-act plays, "Dust of the Road": Thornton Wilder's "Happy Journey"; "The Bishop's Candlesticks." As a special project for contributions to the show-case members of the Little Theatre from Eighth Period Dramatics class presented John Kirkpatrick's "Glamour in the Poconos." A one-act comedy, "Sugar and Spice" by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements was selected for production in Eastern North Carolina Drama Festival at Goldsboro.

The Golden Masquers is an outgrowth of Little Theatre and honorary membership is achieved through outstanding work in actual acting, producing, and even writing plays. This year Golden Masquers have sponsored a drive for more active members in Broughton Little Theatre and increased membership in Raleigh's Little Theatre. Members have worked back stage in all productions of the Raleigh Little Theatre. One member, Anne Arendell, played a major role in Raleigh's production, "Remember Mama." Barbara Shreffler, another Golden Masquer, entered an original play, "Retribution" in the state Play Writing Contest. "Place, It's Wonderful" was selected for Golden Masquer entry in the Spring Festival.

The two organizations working in close coöperation hope they have contributed toward producing a finer theatrical taste among Broughton students and a desire for "better plays and better acting."

SENIOR HI-Y

The year of 1946-47 has been an active one for the Hi-Y Club. This club, sponsored by the Young Men's Christian Association, has as its purpose "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

This year the club promoted several projects with excellent results. Needham Broughton's first student-faculty telephone directory was published. By playing a basketball game against a local team the group raised funds for the March of Dimes. At Thanksgiving, football tickets were sold for the benefit game between the Methodist and Oxford orphanages. The club also co-operated with several other city and school campaigns.

In the spring two outstanding functions occurred. The annual Hi-Y minstrel was presented March 28, and the annual dance was held April 25.

Meetings were held weekly at the Y.M.C.A. Every third Sunday the members attended various Raleigh churches in a body.

PURPOSE: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian character."

OFFICERS: President, Ewart Easterling; Vice President, Harold Rhodes; Secretary, David Robinson; Treasurer, Fred Phipps; Sergeant-at-Arms, Billy Ammons; Adviser, Mr. Ed Murray.

The Junior Hi-Y has had an active year of projects and programs. It undertook the printing and sale of Broughton stickers for luggage and windows. Another important project was cleaning the boys' rest rooms.

The programs have included speakers and a number of socials for the members. In addition, the annual Junior Hi-Y dance for the school was held in the spring.

The Latipac

You don't have to be crazy to put out an annual—but it helps!

Glue flying, worried expressions, and scattered papers would have presented to any puzzled spectator a typical panorama of a day in the Latipac workshop. While the struggling scribes were doggedly producing their literary masterpieces, the financiers were collecting the money, and the ad-getters were rushing frantically about town.

The "big bosses" for this year consisted of Helen Bell, Editor-in-Chief; Al Pruitt, Business Manager; Kenneth Winston, Advertising Manager; Mrs. Judson M. Kneece, Editorial Adviser; and Miss Laura Helen Paschal, Business Adviser. After the completion of elections for the chiefs in November, the task began.

The business staff "set the ball rolling" with the collection of money for both the reservations of annuals and the individual and group pictures. Mr. F. L. Johnson from Wooten-Moulton Studio in Chapel Hill was the real "Johnny-on-the-spot." Journeying all the way from the college town, he made several visits in order to make the photography "just right."

In January the editorial staff received their assignments and labored without ceasing until March. Describing senior characteristics, compiling the seniors' high school activities, obtaining club write-ups, identifying pictures, and gathering statistics from here, there, and everywhere composed the duties of the "editorialites." After the written material was completed and copyread, the efficient typists, competently finished the work.

The solicitation of advertisements from the Raleigh merchants was the final item on the Latipac agenda.

When the final deadline, March 17, rolled round, Mr. J. H. Hardison from Edwards & Broughton Co., worked with us in order to produce the best possible yearbook.

Here we present to you the 1947 Latipac. We hope you like it.

Any boy who has earned a varsity letter in football, basketball, baseball, or track, and has been recommended by the coach is eligible for membership in the Monogram Club, but before becoming a member, he must be approved by the whole club.

The "new edition" of the club formed this year has carried on a number of notable projects. The members were of great aid in the successful intramural sports program carried out this year. When not engaged in the sport themselves, this group of athletes promoted good conduct at Broughton basketball games. A spring dance, which probably will be made an annual affair, was given on March 14. Indeed, the club and its individual members promoted interest in all athletics and coöperation among athletes in our high school.

Co-Captains, SENTER and LESANE

Coach Lee Stone's fourth year at Raleigh saw the Caps again rank high among the football powers of the State. There were no championships won, but the team was able to compile a record of six wins, two losses, and a pair of ties. Highlights of the year were wins over Wilmington and Durham and a 0-0 tie with Greensboro's Western champions. John Senter and Jimmy Lesane were co-captains.

Several Raleigh players were named to various all-star teams at the season's close. Jimmy Cain topped the list with his selection on the annual All-Southern team. Charles Lloyd won a berth on the All-State squad, and Senter and Billy Crocker were chosen on a number of All-Eastern Conference elevens.

RALEIGH 0, GREENSBORO 0

The highly touted Whirlwind of Greensboro blew into Raleigh in the season opener but was unable to get by the strong defense that the Caps offered. However, the visitors presented an equally tight defense with the result that neither team seriously threatened the other's goal. Tackle Bob Summers was the leader in the hard-charging Cap line.

RALEIGH 12, DURHAM 0

For the fourth straight year Coach Stone's charges defeated their old rivals, the Durham Bulldogs. This time the Caps walked off with a 12-0 victory in a game played in the Durham Athletic Park. Both touchdowns came in the second quarter. Lesane culminated a 38-yard drive by plunging over from the one yard line. The final marker came only four plays from the end of the half. A pair of passes from Lesane to Lloyd and a 16-yard run by Cain sparked the drive of 60 yards. Holland made the last yard on a short line buck. Ferrell and Lloyd were outstanding in the Raleigh line.

RALEIGH 0, WILSON 7

Wilson High, destined to become the State champion, really surprised the high-flying Caps by taking a 7-0 decision in an important contest on the Wilson grid. A pass—Davis to Overman—netted the only touchdown. Lesane returned the second half kickoff 65 yards for an apparent touchdown, but the officials ruled that his knee had touched the ground when he caught the kick.

Coach STONE, FERRELL, and LLOYD

Coach SMITH and SOMMERS

RALEIGH 19, E.M.I. 7

Raleigh got back into the win column the following week by defeating a highly regarded Edwards Military Institute eleven, 19-7. Olive blocked a punt in the first quarter, and Lloyd recovered in the end zone for the Caps' initial score. Senter brought the crowd to its feet with a scintillating 70-yard dash off tackle in the second quarter for the next score, and Holland added the third with a 48-yard run.

RALEIGH 12, WILMINGTON 9

Outgained but not outfought, Raleigh annexed its most coveted victory of the season by defeating Wilmington's loop leading Wildcats, 12-9, in a thrilling contest played in the Coastal City. Senter accounted for both Cap touchdowns, one coming on a short line plunge and the other on a long pass thrown by Lesane.

SUMMERS and DEYTON

Despite Senter's performance, the Caps might still have been on the short end of the score had the clock not favored them. The first half ended with Wilmington holding the ball on the Raleigh 1-yard line, and at the end of the game the Wildcats were on the Cap 7.

RALEIGH 25, GOLDSBORO 0

The opposition was not so stiff when the Caps returned home to defeat Goldsboro's Quakes, 25-0. The score does not indicate the true difference between the two teams, as Raleigh rolled up 265 yards on the ground and 178 by air. Ussery, Lloyd, Ferrell, and Sommers did the scoring, with the latter's coming on an 87-yard kick return.

RALEIGH 43, BLUE RIDGE 19

There were touchdowns galore as the Caps turned back Blue Ridge, 43-19, at Riddick Stadium. From the time Lesane streaked 46 yards to a score in the opening minutes to a 37-yard payoff dash by Ussery at the game's end, the fans were treated to a spectacular offensive show. Blue Ridge's Walt Ferrell, however, stole the show with a 97-yard gallop with an intercepted pass.

MOORE

CROCKER and JONES

RALEIGH 38, ROANOKE RAPIDS 0

A series of spectacular, long runs sparked the Caps to an easy 38-0 triumph over Roanoke Rapids here. Raleigh scored on the opening play when Cain galloped 34 yards to give a hint of what was to come. Shipstead crossed the goal twice on runs of 77 and 10 yards, and Sommers also reached paydirt on two occasions with a 70-yard punt return and a 13-yard end run. Senter counted once on a 93-yard run and set up another score with a run of 49 yards. Holland made the other touchdown on a short line buck.

RALEIGH 0, FAYETTEVILLE 20

The string of five consecutive Raleigh victories was snapped the next week in Fayetteville as the Bulldogs emerged with a convincing 20-0 win. Coach Stone's boys simply could not get their attack started, and the speedy Fayetteville backs ran the Cap defense ragged. A 36-yard run by Sommers was the best offensive play for Raleigh.

RALEIGH 13, ROCKY MOUNT 13

With a possible opportunity to garner a tie for the Eastern crown hinging on the season's final with Rocky Mount, Raleigh was unable to come through with a win over the Blackbirds, and the game ended in a 13-13 deadlock. Ussery tallied both Cap touchdowns, and Lesane passed to Lloyd for the important extra point. Crocker paced the Raleigh line that put up several excellent goal line stands during the encounter.

Basketball

The 1947 basketball season saw Broughton High with a much improved team over that of the preceding year. The record of eight wins and twelve defeats was not impressive, but the team succeeded in bringing the City championship to Broughton by scoring a thrilling 46-45 victory over Hugh Morson. Moreover, the Hurricane played what was perhaps as difficult a schedule as was faced by any team in the State.

Guard J. W. Boles led Broughton in scoring with 175 points. Trailing him were Dick Jenrette, with 148, and Red Barham, with 145. Other high scorers on the team were Captain Billy Burgess, with 97, and Robert Williamson, with 80.

The outstanding performances of the year were the 49-40 win over Rocky Mount, a 42-35 win over Fayetteville, a pair of victories over the Eastern Carolina Teachers College Jayvees, and two fine showings against the Carolina Freshmen, which resulted in two and three point losses for Broughton.

Bad luck plagued the Hurricane for most of the season; and four games were lost by two points, one by three points, and several others resulted in five to six point triumphs for the opposition. The season was started with a pair of victories over Morehead and Sanford, but then the locals hit a tailspin to drop six straight before the streak was snapped with a win over Wake Forest. From there until the end of the season the team played alternately good and bad ball, ending strong with three victories in the last four games.

In one post-season affair, Broughton was defeated by Wilson, 49-38, in the semi-finals of the ACC invitation tournament. Barham won a position on the All-Tournament team.

Coach Joe Holliday, elevated from the Jayvee coaching job of the previous year, should be given much credit for his tutoring of a squad that had but two lettermen returning.

Broughton's Jayvees, coached by Bill Smith, had a successful season with 15 wins and but two losses. John Duncan and Eddie Randolph were the team's high scorers.

Track

Coach Joe Holliday could call on but five experienced performers as he opened work for the 1947 Raleigh track team. There were many newcomers out for the local cinder squad, and just how well the team was to fare depended largely on whether some of them could develop into consistent scorers.

Raleigh captured the State championship in 1945, but last season, the Caps, minus many of their key performers, were unable to retain their title. This year graduation again deprived Holliday of many top-flight performers, but there still remained enough talent in the Raleigh camp to cause plenty of trouble for all opponents.

As the LATIPAC went to press, it appeared that the leaders of the team would be Jimmy Cain and Ernest Phillips, each in his third year on the local squad. Other returning lettermen were Charles Wooten, Gene Ferrell, and Bobby Deyton.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, we salute thee,
Bounteous giver hear our praise
For within thy walls we've garnered
Gifts enriching all our days;
Opportunity for friendship,
Guidance in our quest for truth,
Faith through all our grave endeavor,
Understanding love of youth.
These our gifts, O Alma Mater,
We shall cherish through the days.
Striving still through high endeavor
Thus to render thee our praise.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

Some time, somewhere, we will surely meet again,
We'll reminisce over all the little things,
We won't say goodbye until the last minute,
We'll say our farewell, but our hearts won't be in it.
The fun we've had in the halls of Broughton High,
Will stay with us 'till the years have long gone by,
We'll think of the joy, the happiness and the tears
That made life so full for us throughout the years.

In years to come, we'll recall you in our dreams,
They'll come and go like the ripples on a stream,
But we'll ne'er forget the friends that we treasure,
The work we have done with its hardships and pleasures.
So now we say to the ones who carry on,
We wish the best for the years that are to come.
We're leaving, 'tis true, but we will come back again,
So farewell dear Broughton High, we say "Adieu."

BUILDERS of DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to co-operate with the staff in creating their vision into material form.

Such coöperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete co-operation, we offer unexcelled service. You, too, may be proud of your annual.

Correspondence is Invited
